

Adult Community Education 2025-26 to 2027-28 grants

Level 1 Adult Community Education 2025-26 to 2027-28 grants

Legal name	Grant description
Australian Refugee Association Inc	Provides reading, writing, oral communication and comprehension skills to refugee and migrant communities to improve their employability.
Beach Road Artworks Inc	Provides language, literacy, numeracy and digital foundation skills for people facing barriers to learning and employment through art, well-being and digital technology courses.
Christie Downs Community Centre Inc	Delivers courses that support students to identify and develop vocational skills of local industries. They provide language, literacy, numeracy, communication and digital skills through digital, culinary, hospitality, cleaning and care courses relevant to local enterprises.
Eastwood Community Centre Inc	Supports students to build language, literacy, numeracy, digital and work skills through practical and hands-on learning in courses of cooking, financial literacy, digital literacy and floristry.
Employment Options Inc	Supports disengaged and vulnerable young people with language, literacy, numeracy, communication and digital skills. Training is provided through courses that focus on barista skills, game play testing, employment and a licence, welding and podcasting and radio.
Hackham West Community Centre Inc	Delivers foundation skills training through courses that includes barista skills, job readiness, digital literacy, horticulture for food, and English language skills.
The Junction Community Centre Inc	Provides foundation skills training through courses on English as a second language, literacy for native English speakers, basic computing, 1:1 digital literacy, intermediate computing, and life skills for women.
MarionLife Community Centre Inc	Provides language, literacy, numeracy and digital skills to support students for vocational education or employment. The courses are contextualized to cooking, barista and café work, English language and literacy skills for study and employment, digital skills, horticulture and gardening, communication skills, customer service skills and small business and entrepreneur skills. The project is led by MarionLIFE and run in partnership with City of Marion Neighbourhood Centre and Pasadena Community Centre (City of Mitcham).
Morella Community Centre Inc	Supports students with digital literacy, communication, reading, numeracy and work readiness skills through contextualized courses focusing on beauty services, small businesses, nursing and allied health, and baking.
Multicultural Communities Council of South Australia Inc	Supports culturally and linguistically diverse adults, particularly women, through sewing to build their literacy, numeracy, communication, and digital literacy skills that would be transferable throughout life and work.
Murray Bridge Community Centre Inc	Delivers foundation skills training in Murray Bridge around digital literacy confidence, communication, reading and numeracy skills, foundation skills for employment, introductory small business skills, and learning in everyday environments.
Muslim Women's Association of South Australia Inc	Provides foundation skills training to prepare participants for the workplace including learning English for the workplace, numeracy, digital and oral communication skills, participating in workplace tasks and preparing to engage in workplace tasks.

Legal name	Grant description
Overseas Chinese Association of South Australia Inc	Delivers non-accredited language, literacy and communication skills training through English language courses to the Chinese community.
Patch of Plenty	Provides students with literacy, numeracy, and job readiness skills training in small scale organic food production and employment, supporting students to transition to training or volunteering in organic food production enterprises. This project is delivered at Aldinga and Glandore.
Pooraka Farm Community Centre Inc	Delivers language, literacy, numeracy and digital skills training through courses around sewing, customer services skills, English language, and basic workplace skills courses, and a pathway to assist students prepare for transport industry related job interviews.
Reynella Neighbourhood Centre Inc	Delivers training in language, literacy and communication skills and supports students to transition to employment or further study. This is delivered at the Aberfoyle Community Centre and Reynella Community Centre.
Riverland Division of General Practice Inc	Delivers non-accredited foundation skills through the Flow into Your Future program that provides participants with literacy, numeracy, digital, and oral communication skills, as well as a career plan, support for resume and job interview skills, and 1:1 tutoring where required.
Rural City of Murray Bridge	The project supports women over 45 years of age who are currently unemployed to enter or re-enter the workforce through contextualized and practical industry-relevant training that focuses on language, literacy, digital literacy, and communication skills.
UnitingSA Ltd	Delivers the “Moving forward pre-employment course” to support student’s foundation skills needs including their work readiness skills for training or employment. This course is delivered in three locations: Murray Bridge, Taperoo and Salisbury.
Workers Educational Association of SA Inc	Provides non-accredited short courses to support student’s foundation skills training in language, literacy, numeracy, digital literacy, and work readiness. Students are engaged through introductory courses to rebuild their confidence and social engagement, and progress to vocational or skills-based training, creating a supported pathway from re-engagement to employment readiness. Where suitable, these courses may also be provided throughout the State in an online format.
Zahra Foundation Australia	Delivers non-accredited foundation skills training through their Pathways to Empowerment program that provides contextualized training to participants escaping domestic violence. This project will expand into regional locations.

Level 2 Adult Community Education 2025-26 to 2027-28 grants

Legal name	Grant description
Beach Road Artworks Inc	Provides language, literacy, numeracy and digital literacy foundation skills for people facing barriers to learning and employment through art and digital based courses.
Morella Community Centre Inc	Delivers foundation skills training through three courses: work health and safety practices providing a pathway to commercial kitchen practices, communication skills providing a pathway to horticulture training, commercial kitchen practices and communication skills providing a pathway to children's services. .
Pooraka Farm Community Centre Inc	Delivers foundation skills through three courses: Intro to Care-First Aid, Women's education, and construction mini skill set, providing a pathway to vocational education and training and employment.
Vietnamese Community in Australia/South Australia Chapter Incorporated	Delivers the "Pathway to Individual Support in Healthcare" course that combines contextualized foundation skills training with nationally recognised vocational units to familiarize students with real work environment. This course supports students to successfully enter training and employment in the health and aged care sector.